Our methodology

Our methodology is summarized by a simple statement:

“Software applications are developed by People, using Processes, supported by Tools, as an answer to business needs”.

Behind this statement GEM-UP CONSULTING recognizes the importance of:

- People: The most important aspect of your organization or of the organization of your partners and sponsors.
- Process: Where your organization needs to find the right balance between creativity and control, staying agile.
- Tools: Where technology can offer a comfortable computer-aided environment .
- Business: Where developing, acquiring, implementing or maintaining software is a strategic, profitable and sustainable activity.

Our methodology consists of finding the right balance, the right alignment between your software development operation and your business strategy.

Our services consist of:

Appraisals

- Organizational assessment, gap analysis, Enterprise, Department, Project, Suppliers.
- Focus assessment: A focused assessment of a particular discipline (such as SQA, SCM, Product development, People, Datacenter ...).

Management Consulting

- Team Development, Process Implementation, Methodology selection
- Supplier Management, Product development, Quality Management, Acquisition strategy.
- Project Management, Change Management, Growth Management.
